from the President

At our February demonstration evening we were very lucky to have Deidre Morrison showing us two fun and versatile acrylic paint pour techniques. Deidre and Satya brought along many examples of paintings, coasters, cutting boards and resin jewellery to inspire us and there are periodic classes at Richmond Art Supplies to get you started.

Our demonstrator in March is Dario Falzon showcasing his oil painting techniques and, as we know from past experience, the evening will be very interesting and informative, with some fun for good measure. To see some examples of Dario's work, visit his web page www.dariofalzon.com

The committee are continuing their efforts to secure a new home for the society. The property is in Musson Lane, behind St Andrews Uniting Church in W. Market St. We are only waiting for the lease to be completed and reviewed before making a final commitment.

We will be seeking volunteers to be on a roster for the new MTAS gallery - an opportunity for members to showcase their work on a regular basis.

Don't forget to check our website at www.mtas.com.au for the latest information on demonstrations and workshops and 'like' and share our Facebook page.

Cheers,
Kym

Art is what we call... the thing an artist does.

It's not the medium or the oil or the price or whether it hangs on a wall or you eat it. What matters, what makes it art, is that the person who made it overcame the resistance, ignored the voice of doubt and made something worth making. Something risky. Something human.

Art is not in the eye of the beholder. It's in the soul of the artist.

My work has been published in Australian Artist Magazine, Art/Edit Magazine and the Rosemary & Co Artist Brushes newsletter.

Dario is an exhibiting member of the Royal Art Society of NSW and is a brand ambassador for Michael Harding Paints - <http://www.michaelharding.co.uk/>

About my Demo:

I will be talking through my process of taking a small gouache sketch into a larger oil painting. The scene is of a late afternoon by the river.

On the night i will bring some framed pieces of my work and a display copy of my new book, with ordering information.

Dario Falzon - Oils

In 2016 I was fortunate to become an international brand ambassador for Michael Harding Paints, accompanying them to the Plein Air Convention in Tucson,

Arizona. While there I was enrolled as a faculty member and gave a demonstration of my painting technique.

I have exhibited in group shows and national art prizes such as the annual Camberwell Art Show and Victor Harbor Rotary club show, where I was awarded a bronze award in 2016. I was also a finalist in the prestigious 2016 Len Fox Art Award, a biennial art award show held by the Castlemaine Art Museum in Victoria, Australia.

The second of three biennial surveys presenting the latest ideas and forms in contemporary Australian art. Staged concurrently at three of Sydney's premiere cultural institutions – the Art Gallery of NSW, Carriageworks and the Museum of Contemporary Art Australia – The National 2019: new Australian art showcases a total of 65 emerging, mid-career and established Australian artists living across the country and overseas and working in a diverse range of media.

The exhibition at the Art Gallery of NSW presents 24 artists who navigate the boundary between chaos and control in work that is by turns political, poetic and personal. It reveals how Australian artists are responding with subtlety and ambition to the times they live in, through artworks that are intricate, complex and often charged with a sense of precariousness.

“Chalk Art on George”

Hawkesbury Community Arts Workshop (HCAW) successfully applied for funds through Hawkesbury City Council's sponsorship program to run a public art project in George Street Windsor.

The project is called “Chalk Art on George” and will be held between 9am and 3pm on Sunday, 5 May 2019.

This exciting and fun project involves local Hawkesbury artists creating temporary chalk artworks in public spaces. There is no theme and artists are invited to come up with their own ideas to suit the space they are given to work on. Whilst the exact locations of the artworks are yet to be confirmed with business owners, the surfaces may include pavement areas as well as walls. As well as being paid an artist fee, Hawkesbury Regional Gallery is providing artists with good quality chalks.

The artworks will start at the end of the Windsor Mall on the corner of George and Fitzgerald Streets and continue along to Hawkesbury Regional Gallery at 300 George Street. There, everyone can join in and try their hand at being a chalk artist. There will be outdoor chalk pavement activities as well as a chalk wall art activity inside the Gallery.

Local Hawkesbury artists, who are interested in receiving more information and in making an expression of interest, are invited to contact Josephine Blue, President of the Hawkesbury Community Arts Workshop by email: hawkesburycommunityartsworkshop@yahoo.com.au Expressions of Interest need to be received by 29 March at the same email address.

Seven artists will be selected in early April and then work with HCAW and Council to prepare for the day.

HCAW is looking to work with local arts groups and local artists, not just HCAW members. We are also seeking volunteers to help on the day: sitting with artists at each "art stop" to provide information and maps showing all locations, as well as assisting with the interactive activities outside the Deerubbin Centre.

Volunteers will need to attend an information session at the Gallery prior to the event.

Council and HCAW will be promoting the event and any art group, which helps with some of their members providing volunteer help, will be acknowledged. I would really appreciate it if you could forward this email onto any Hawkesbury visual artist who may be interested in participating.

Groups who would like to assist with volunteers are also invited to participate by replying to this email: hawkesburycommunityartsworkshop-@yahoo.com.au

It will be great to work together and involve Hawkesbury's art community in this project.
