

from our President

The annual Sale of Work at Richmond Market Place will take place from Thursday, 16th August to Sunday, 19th. Everyone will receive an entry form for up to five works, which should be returned by 6th August, 2018.

Members are reminded that small works are best suited to this venue as we hope that casual shoppers will find something that they cannot live without and so take an art work home with them. The committee has decided to support the local branch of Animal Welfare with the proceeds of the raffle. Many people in our community contribute to voluntary rescue programs not only for abandoned pets but for horses and other distressed animals as well. Their funding is limited and the need is constant. Pat Latta has donated a painting for the raffle and we hope members will take a few tickets to sell before the event. Every dollar will be appreciated.

Our monthly meetings have been well attended recently and Kym Morris has put a lot of effort into persuading artists to visit us. This month we had expected Kerry Ainsworth to talk about Art Tourism but unfortunately Kerry has had to cancel the session. To fill in at such short notice we thank Melissa Read-Devine who will demonstrate landscape in acrylics. We are very fortunate to have a group of such talented artists who are willing to help out in our society.

The committee meets prior to the demonstration meeting and we have been aware recently that members have not been able to freely enter the building from 7:00pm. The library staff have now informed us that the doors are locked at 7 to prevent "The Homeless" from setting up camp in the building but it also means that someone needs to be at the entrances to open the doors for our members. If there is anyone who could volunteer to arrive by 7:00pm and act as the Doorperson, we would be very grateful. In the meantime, please be patient and allow us to help you asap.

The Open Days at Yarramundi continue on 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of each month. Don't be put off by the cold weather as the venue is well heated and the morning tea is first class. Everyone is welcome and you may bring as many friends as you wish.

The work at the Pitt Town Sporting Club will be changed over on Thursday 23rd August. For many years Sheila Sharp has been helping artists by hanging work in such venues. Many artists have sold work thanks to Sheila's efforts to publicise MTAS activities. If you are interested in hanging one or two paintings at Pitt Town, please contact Sheila.
